For everyone: Are you familiar with the Windy City ToolBank? ToolBank serves community-based organizations by providing tools, equipment and expertise to empower their most ambitious goals. ToolBank provides a low-cost alternative to purchasing, storing, and maintaining tools and equipment non-profits, schools and churches need to make their volunteer and fundraising projects possible.

Potential donors:

As a nonprofit organization, we exist to serve our community and would greatly appreciate your support in our efforts. Whether you donate funds, tools, or in-kind gifts, the Windy City ToolBank will use your donation to equip thousands of volunteers and power renovation and revitalization projects across the Tri-State.

Potential member agency:

If you're involved with a community group, nonprofit organization, church or school, consider how ToolBank tools and equipment could impact your work. Make sure to visit www.windycitytoolbank.org to sign up as a member agency and let the Windy City ToolBank power your next service project.

Potential volunteer:

The ToolBank is looking for volunteers who are interested in helping out in our facility—maintaining tools, coordinating tours and lending tools to local nonprofit organizations for their service projects. If you have some time to share, please join us at the ToolBank. We'd love to have you!

ToolBank Saturdays: The 2nd Saturday of every month from 10:00 am - 2:00 pm. This is an opportunity for potential member agencies, volunteers and donors to see first-hand all that the Windy City ToolBank has to offer. Our team looks forward to giving tours of our 4,500 sq. ft. warehouse that houses an inventory of 125 different types of tools available to be borrowed by community-based non-profit organizations, schools and churches so that every volunteer has the tools they need to make a positive impact. There will be some light bites and beverages. We look forward to introducing you to our organization.
